

CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town Stamford, State Conn. No. 1940
Date of 24th
Church St. Andrew's Church, 27 Washington Ave. Completion October 2, 1936.
Donor and Mrs. Victor H. Veit,
Address 736 Atlantic Street, Stamford, Connecticut.
Architect Charles C. Coveney, 184 Boylston St. Boston. Quality of Glass $100.00 ($11.78 per foot)
Denomination
and Minister Rev. Kenneth Ripley Forbes.
Footage 8 1/2 feet. sight
Sizes, full George Widman, 8926 - 204th St.
Ventilators Set by Hollis, L.I., N.Y.
Position in Church Tower vestibule window.
Height from floor 5 feet. Protec- Groove Stone
tion Glass Rabbet Wood
Points of compass
Quality of light Northern Inscription "In loving memory of Carrie Banks Sniffin" (Taken from letter of August 24, 1936.
Verified in letter of August 26, 1936.)
Design wanted Staging
Shipping address Blue-prints
Received
Bill to Templets of former window taken by George Widman.
Photos of Cartoons Mailed
General Information This window is "to be a duplicate of the one we formerly made, with the exception that the color tone is to be lighter and that the symbol in the centre is to be different - The Passion Cross.

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.