General Information Medallion of Catherine Takakwitha like the one in the tracery piece of the transept window. This to be a companion medallion to the Saint Helen of Sweden he has.

(He also wants a colored photograph of the little Saint John Nepomuc confessional window that Mr. Connick gave Saint John's Church, Chestertown - color a print and give it to him.) Scut "While adapting the figure to the different shape, we tried to keep the fine characteristics of the one in the tracery of your windows. We have added little symbols in the field to suggest the cross cut in the bark of a tree where she spent her free time in prayer; and the Indian who raised his axe to strike her, but left without harming her when she exclaimed, "You may take my life but not my faith". The flying bird
