General Information Two windows - Robert Frost and Emily Dickinson. Taking poems of theirs and using them with their own figures. From time to time in some of those panes, there could be other little things put in - take in some of our other New England writers.
Two medallions.

*Mr. Robb wrote: There is no set date for the official opening. P.W.A. says it must not be later than Nov. 11th. My guess is that it will be nearer the middle of October or even earlier. It would be very desirable to have your panels in place at that time...."

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.

South: "There is no frigate like a book
To take us lands away".

(Emily Dickenson).

Dickenson

North: "Something there is
That doesn't love a wall
That wants it down."

(Robert Frost).
