South Gallery L. Modern Women: Frances Willard, Isabelle Thoburn, Barbara Heck.

M. Women of the Bible: Dorcas, Mary, Magdalene, Ruth.

Isabelle Thoburn was the first women sent out by the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. She did a great work in India and in her way was as remarkable as her Brother, the Bishop.

Re: Women of the Bible, ...Mary Magdalene was at the Crucifixion and saw Him hurriedly buried. She also was first at the tomb and the first to whom Christ appeared. Ruth was selected because she was from the Old Testament, was from a pagan people, adopted Judaism and by her second marriage came into the line of David and so of Christ; representing the universality of Christ and his teaching.

Mr. Miner sent a clipping from the Christian Advocate of August 16,1945 in regard to Barbara Heck. In the book "The Story of Methodism" by Luccock and Hutchinson on page 145 is the story of Barbara Heck, and on page 404 a line cut of her. In this book are also sketches of Isabella Thoburn and Frances Willard as related to Methodism.

March 4,1948 - Mr. Miner wrote: "...the committee thought that the clerestory windows on the south side should be the first to be installed; second the south gallery windows, and last the clerestory windows on the north side.

These mindows are devoted to maintly execut; one, somes of Biblical times, and the other, more modern.

In the first Mary Magdelson Comington the Central panel. The east the Crucifizion and see His harriedly baried. Later she was first at the tesh and the first to show Cariet appeared. She helds the jer of precious cintment, and in the modelling below the in represented weshing the fact of Jesus.

at the left is Dorcon, otherwise known so labitie, the such of good sorte and also deeds, helding a meall germent that the has made for the poor. In the modallion below the is represented clothing a mealy child.

Buth, of the Old Tantament, who by marriage case into the line of David, and so of Carist, holds bor glosnings of wheat. She is a symbol of the universality of Christ and Ele teaching. In the sectalities below she to observed by Boar er she glosses in his finise.

Imballs Probam holds the control position in the second similes.

She holds a pen to symbolise her writings, and the social of Technoma.
