General Information Allegorical figure of Faith, to replace the present St.
Cecilia panel.

(See photograph of other side chancel windows in same wall).

As with all of our designs, this is intended to suggest color and light in action, and the exquisite detail of line and form is to be developed in the full sized drawing and actual glass, as you have seen it in our other windows.

The angelic figure in pure white with ruby wings on a field of cool blue holds the Cross of Faith."

Note: ~~When craftsman sets this window, he should take templates of the aisle windows.~~

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.

Faith.

We feel that this panel will make a lovely complement to the other windows, each enhancing its neighbors, and all completing a pleasant harmony of design and color.
