

CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND
LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town Louisville, State Kentucky No. 2907

Church Concordia Lutheran Church, 1127 East Date of June 1, 1949
Donor and Broadway. Completion
Address

Architect Quality of $1200 ($61.11).
Denomination Lutheran Glass Profit 244
and Minister The Reverend Carl A. Eberhard. 292.17

Footage 18 feet sight
Sizes, full

Ventilators We supply Hope Casement Ventilator Set by (We have this here).

Position in Church West aisle window.

Height from floor 6'6". Protec- Groove Stone
tion Glass Rabbet Wood

Points of compass
Quality of light West

Inscription None

Design wanted soon. Staging

Shipping address Blue-prints
Received

Bill to Templets

Photos of Cartoons Mailed

General Information The Miracle at Cana, The Stilling of the Storm, and The Feeding of the Five Thousand.

Perhaps the Blum Ornamental Glass Company will install.

See photographs of others we have made.

Note: Saw Eberhard price of 3,900 for large balcony and in Leavenworth 61' ($62 per ft)

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.

Feb.19,1948. West aisle window - devoted to the Miracles. The first at the Wedding feast at Cana, second, - Stilling the Storm, and finally the Feeding of the Five Thousand.