"For the estimate of $2000, which I have suggested, I have in mind the very finest type of windows, with an abundance of sturdy lead surrounding small pieces of glass.
Keep in mind an alternation of color scheme through the group of four windows.

Mr. Hine has suggested "a work symbolic of what all Westminster Foundations are trying to do. The purposes are these: 1. Universal commitment to Christ and His Kingdom. 2 Bible study and prayer. 3. Understanding the Christian faith. 4. Worship and service in the church. 5th Growth in Christian Character. 6. Stewardship. 7. Christian World Order.

Design made

1. To symbolize ~~Un~~lessed Commitment to Christ and His Kingdom.

The Calling of Peter and Andrew to be fishers of men (4:18-19). (large med.)
~~(They are fund of the Son)~~. Scripture - For ~~whoever~~ would save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. Matthew 16:25
Small medallion - Rich Young Ruler (Luke 18:18)

2. Bible Study and Prayer - Understanding the Christian Faith.

~~Christ among the Doctors (St. Luke 2:46)~~. Large med. Sermon on the Mount (Christ preaching to multitude). Scripture - Thou shall love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, ~~and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your~~*

3. Worship and Service in the Church. ~~Growth in Christian Character.~~

2/6/47 The Sermon on the Mount - The Eight Beatitudes (St. Matthew 5: 3-10).

Large medallion - Jesus in the Synagogue (Luke 4:16)
Scripture: ~~Led is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and~~

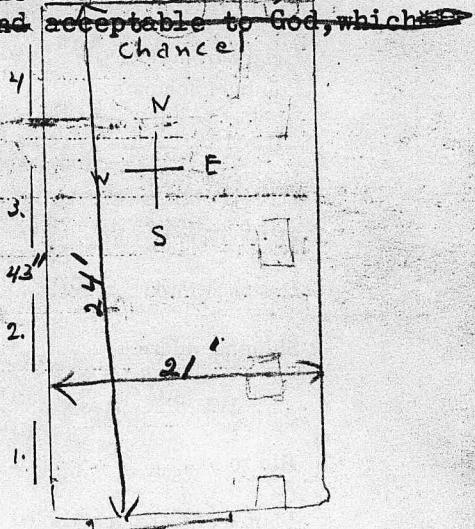

4. Stewardship Growth in Christian Character - Stewardship

~~The 25th Chapter of St. Matthew. Verses 30-36 FOR I was an hungry, etc.~~
~~Or The First Miracle (Saint John 2:1).~~

Large med - Parable of Talents (Possibly with youthful figures).

Scripture ~~I appeal to you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which~~

Mrs. Fraser's husband was connected with the Univ. of Ill. for 50 years as teacher and head of a department in Coll of Agriculture, which he organized 50 years ago. Great love for farm and farm life. Loved nature, sunsets, etc., farm animals - humanized them. Glorified common things of life.

Mrs. Fraser likes the color plate of the Holderness School window. Combine that idea with the general plan of subject matter above. Of course, this does not include the 3 full figure medallions as in the Holderness School window, but we should use the deep rich palette that distinguishes that window.

Work out this idea in a rough sketch before suggesting a larger allowance. Keep the figures as youthful as possible. The scheme to have full and secondary medallions, and inscribed books with the text, and the memorial inscription at the bottom.

Typical design: "incorporates the subject material for the first window, with the dominant medallion devoted to the Calling of Peter & Andrew to be fishers of men, and the smaller medallion symbolizing Jesus and the Rich Young Ruler (St. Luke 18:18), as a significant commentary on the central theme. The open book of the Scriptures would bear the text from the 25th verse of St. Matthew's 16th Chapter, "For whoever would save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

"...a lovely balance of pure blue and ruby, with the blue predominating but very well foiled by the passages of ruby and gold. We plan an interesting counterchange of ruby and ~~gold~~ blue in minor positions through the group of four, to add pleasant variety. Through all runs the very essential thread of silver accented with gold and green. While these windows are designed in full color, the gold and silver passages prevent them from becoming somber and they will sparkle and glow in all lights. There will be a counterchange of the dominant colors, but the general color scheme will carry through and unite the group.

Jan. 9, 1947. (returned the original approved color design on black card, with tracing paper sketch for alternate color scheme, and rough sketches for the dominant themes of the remaining 2 windows. This will illustrate our thought for the counter-change of color, ruby and blue, through the group.) The subjects as planned are indicated on the sketch, and texts, for the open books, are given on the enclosed sheet, as suggested by Mr. Hine and his staff. The second and fourth are pretty long, but we will plan their design to best advantage in the full size drawings.
