General Information Christ Blessing Children.
They would like light mat suggested on the field.

We have suggested something of the foliated texture in the field of your window, and have added the significant text, "Suffer little children to come unto Me...for of such is the kingdom of God". We think it may be better higher in the field than in the lower space.

Note: We are to have the medallion somewhat larger in the actual glass, and we are to emphasize the foliated pattern on the surrounding field; and give the inscription more weight, so that you will not feel the lower part of the window to be too light. Perhaps we could put the inscription on colored glass, and get a little more color in the wide foliated border.
