General Information The portion above the bar is to be devoted to Saint John comforting Mary; and the portion below, to Christ carrying the Cross, with the accompanying soldiers and others, in the This would scale and harmonize well with our transept window which is symbolical of the Resurrection and Ascension. (The lower panels can be in comparatively small subject-panels across the base.)

(The only window in place on the north side of the church is our transept window, and there are 3 windows the size of this one we are making, plus one smaller one.)

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.
