

N<sup>o</sup> 3848

Place Cranston, Rhode Island.

Building Church of the Ascension, 390 Pontiac Avenue, Cranston 10, Rhode Island.

Date of Completion April 1, 1960.

Persons Interested

Price: $250 ea panel ($30).

Loss 187 1/2 140.16.

Minister The Rev. Arthur Wood (Father)

Denomination Episcopal.

Architect

Vents in place, Aluminum.

Position Northeast aisle, middle group, opposite Wheat, Chalice and Host, and Grape.

Height from floor 5 feet

Protection Glass

Groove Rabbet

Metal Stone Wood Aluminum.

Exposure Northeast.

Footage 8 3/4' ea panel.

Inscription For Lily: "The gift of Gertrude M. Kingsley"

For the Star: "In memory of 1886 John M. Geisser 1958."

For The Rose: "In memory of 1856 Carl Fritsch 1910 1858 Caroline Fritsch 1939."

(See contract).

Design wanted soon.

Staging

Templates Yes.

Blueprints

General Information These would be the blue border.

This group will go opposite the one devoted to the Wheat, Chalice and Host and Grape.

This group will be devoted to The Star, The Rose, and The Lily.

left

Right

We have completed the rough color sketch for the middle northeast aisle group at the Church of the Ascension, and we are sending it to you herewith.

As planned, the symbols are the Star of heavenly steadfastness, the Rose of Divine Love, and the Lily of Purity.