

Note: Sketch made under #4122

No 4280

Place Manchester, New Hampshire.

Building The First Congregational Church,
Hanover and Union Sts. Tel. NA 5-5093.

Date of Completion June 1, 1960.

Price: $1150 ($44.23).

Persons Interested

Profit: 20 1/2 % $236.67.

The Rev. Mark B. Strickland, 96 Adams St. Manchester, N.H.

Minister

Denomination Congregational.

Architect Koehler and Isaak, 1880 Elm St. Manchester, N.H. Tel. NA 3-1473.

Vents

Position in Church Right-hand panel of the three panel group in the Chapel.

Height from floor 6 1/2 feet.

Protection Glass

Groove Rabbet

Metal Wood - Sash
Stone Wood here.

Exposure East.

Footage 26'

Inscription No memorial inscription, but include the word "Teaching" to balance the word in the first panel.

Design wanted Made.

Staging

Templates We have the wood sash here.

Blueprints

General Information Note: The wood sash is here.

This is the remaining panel of the three-panel group in the Chapel - the first two being in place - see photographs and color plates.

Christ teaches the way of true Christian life in His Sermon on the Mount. Below is the small related symbol - the Lamp of Enlightenment.

Stars of divine steadfastness enrich the field.