General Information The whole group of windows to be devoted to the theme of the Holy Spirit working through the Sacraments, Fruits, Gifts, etc.

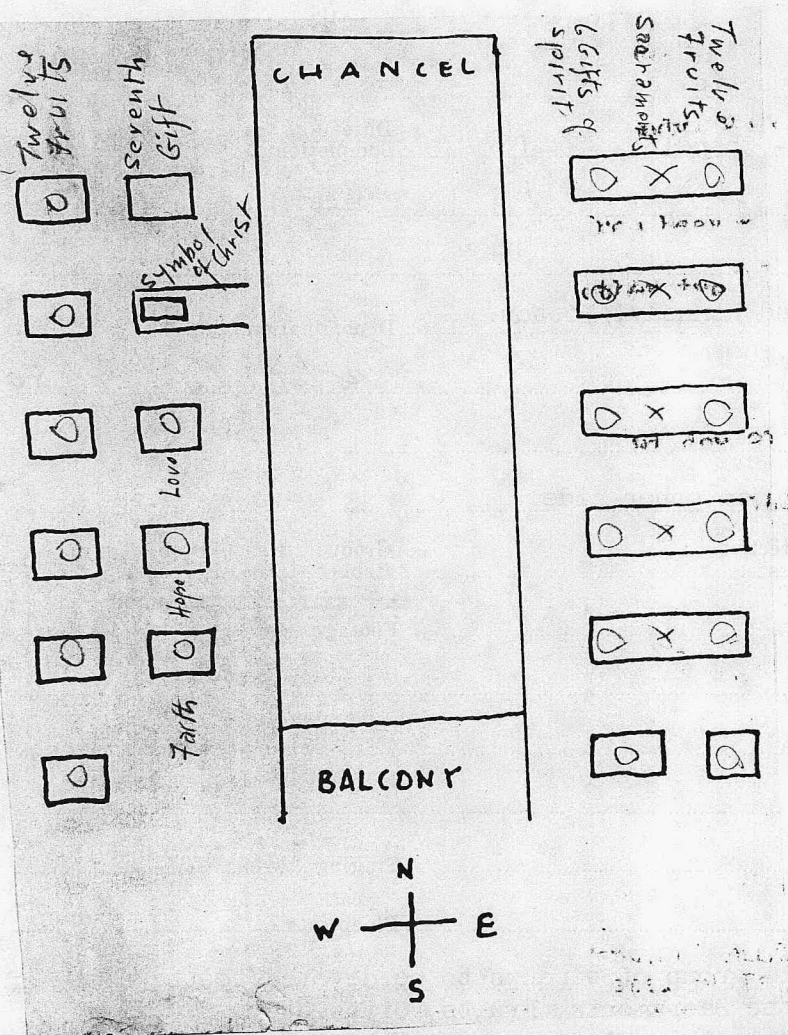

Of course the Sisters are not too interested in the Sacrament of Holy Orders or Marriage, but if we use them, they will probably be included, - and we do not want to over-emphasize the theme of Death.

This is where the older sisters go to spend the last days of their lives - a good many of them die here, and the themes of the windows, east and west, should be the Holy Spirit - "The Holy Spirit at Work."

The windows do not have to be kept too light, and certainly not Gothic.

Also there are two groups of windows in the Sacristy. All the windows marked in red on the blueprints are in this contract.

*Possibly around $40 per foot. It might be possible to introduce saintly figures, but we do not know who they would be. The thing to do is to work out a general design, and then take up details later on.

~~Symbols of the Litany: Mirror of Justice, Seat of wisdom, Spiritual vessel, Vessel of honour, Singular vessel of devotion, Mystical Rose, Tower of David, Tower of Ivory, House of Gold, Ark of the Covenant, Gate of Heaven, Morning Star.~~

~~Besides these, have a crown over a dove for Queen of Peace; a crown over Rosary for Queen of Rosary, and a crown over a palm for Queen of Martyrs, and her Monogram.~~

In the tops of all 12 windows, the Twelve Fruits. **

In the bottoms of the 6 on the east and one nearest the chancel on the west, the Seven Sacraments. Gifts of the Spirit.*

In the three remaining bottoms, west, the Theological Virtues, Faith, Hope and Charity.

The Five Sacraments in the middle east windows (leave out Matrimony and Holy Orders).

Doorlight, symbol of Christ.

Two Sacristy windows (4 panels), Sacramental symbols - something in the nature of those in the Grand Rapids, Grace Church side chancel windows.

*Isaiah 11:2 - Wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, godliness, the spirit of the fear of the Lord.

**Galatians 5:22 "the fruit of the spirit is, Charity, joy, peace, patience, benignity, goodness, longanimity, mildness, faith, modesty, continency, chastity."

The entire fenestration to be devoted to the theme of the Holy Spirit working through the Sacraments, the Gifts and the Fruit of the Holy Ghost.

In the upper parts of all twelve windows, symbols of the Twelve Fruit of the Spirit, - Charity, Joy, Peace, Patience, Benignity, Goodness, Longanimity, Mildness, Faith, Modesty, Continency, Chastity.

In the lower parts of the six windows on the East, and one nearest the chancel on the West, symbols of The Seven Gifts, - Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Godliness, and the Fear of the Lord.

In the remaining West windows, the lower parts will have symbols of the Theological Virtues, - Faith, Hope, Charity.

The middle sections of the five East windows will have symbols of Five Sacraments (omitting Matrimony and Holy Orders), - Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Penance, Holy Unction.

see later notes about including the 7 Sacraments 9/7/61

The four panels in the Sacristy may have symbols of the Vows taken by Nuns, - Poverty, Chastity, and Obedience, with Prayer.

The Doorlight would have a symbol of Christ, perhaps a Sacred Monogram, - the IHS or XP.

Aug. 15, 1961. Troto showed sketches to Mr. Kennedy. He would like it in tans and golds, something like the Cathedral. He likes the idea of the suggestion of rays coming down from heaven, and in these large windows let the Sacrament symbol be larger than the other two.
