As suggested, it is devoted to Saint Cecilia end Saint Paul with attendant Angels. Saint Cecilia holds her traditional symbol of the organ, and Saint Paul has the book and the sword of the spirit.

Members of the Angelic choir bear the trumpet of preise and the censer of prayer, while others are represented in the attitude of prayer. Their ruby wings form interesting patterns through the pure blue fields.

At the base is the memorial inscription. "In Loving Memory of Paul MacDahan".
