General Information Christ Blessing Children. (see other side) and the one for the Children's corner devoted to Christ Blessing Little Children in which He holds a small child in His arms, ~~with two~~ others raise their hands to Him in prayer.

Note: Dr. Fort thinks the figure of Christ Blessing Children is too bulbous; wishes it could be no so full, more like the Christ figure in Christ the King window, New Orleans. 1/28/58.

We are to make a new study for this window. To have a standing figure, holding child, and another below, something like the window in St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit, except a front view. No one likes the present figure with its bloated sides.

"We have indicated a standing figure of Christ for the theme of Blessing Children."
