No. 4177

Place Eastport, Maine.

Building Christ Episcopal Church. Date of Completion

Persons Interested The Rev. Moorhouse L. Johnson. Price: $750, f.o.b. Eastport, Me.
Edgewood, Dennysville, Maine. (Father). Installation extra. ($57.61).

Minister Denomination Episcopal.

Architect

Vents No. 11/12/58

Position in Church 3 aisle windows on east side; 2 on west side, and 2 on south elevation one at either side of entrance. See plan other side

Height from floor Protection Glass Groove Rabbet Metal Stone Wood Wood. *

Exposure 3 East; 2 South; 2 West. Footage 13 feet each.

Inscription not yet received

Design wanted Staging

Templates Blueprints in place.

General Information ~~We have an order for~~ the Nativity Window ~~- see sketch.~~

*For the first window, a new sash was made by Mr. Trott and sent to us here. We installed the glass, shipped it by Maine Freightways to the Church, and Mr. Trott installed it.

4154

Then, there are the designs for three more windows. The Annunciation starts the series n chancel on the east side.

The Nativity being the second, the third re
Calling of the disciples to be fishers of men.
stands on the shore and beckons to the fisherm boat.

The Gethsemane window is designed for the p south wall on the east side. Our Lord kneels while the three apostles sleep in the backgrou

*The Coming of the Spirit at Pentecost - The Pen
Christian Religion means that Our Lord is still with us.

See sketch for the Nativity window, which has been ordered. Important: We are to have more texture on the background, darkening it a bit - even a little stronger than the Montclair color plate. The clerestory windows at the Cowley Fathers Chapel, Cambridge, would be too light. Add a little more blue to the background - to the grisaille. (Their walls are light gray, and Father Johnson doesn't want the whole effect of the church and windows to be gray.)

Remaining windows...
The one devoted to the Last Supper is designed for the last window on the east side; the Crucifixion continues the series in the south opening on the west side, then the Resurrection and finally Pentecost.

...Our Lord is the prominent figure with the Apostles at the Last Supper (Judas in green). Our Lord's Mother and the beloved disciple John (with book and pen) stand at either side of the Cross. Our Lord comes forth from the dark tomb bearing the cruciform banner of victory, with the sleeping soldiers at either side; and the Descending Dove of the Holy Spirit is represented above the Apostles at Pentecost..."