General Information.....

We are also sending a suggestion for the completion of the balcony window in the Church of the Ascension.

We found the rough preliminary sketch for the present portion (you will note there are discrepancies) and have designed the borders to harmonize with it.

The growing foliated pattern is accented with attributes of the Deity, - Power, the sceptre and crown; Majesty, the throne; Wisdom, the serpent twined around a staff; Justice, the scales; Mercy, the broken sword; and the flaming rose of Love and Charity. Although we have represented the crown and sceptre in the aisle windows I think we are justified in including it here.
