

Contract 3/18/69 -
Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel.

O'Malley Glass gave sizes - August 9, 1968.

Price: $1880. for 3 sketches.

No 4906 J

Place..... Albuquerque, New Mexico..... Southwest..... Date of Completion..... Sept. 1, 1969.

Building..... Saint John's Cathedral, 318 Silver Ave."..... Completion.....

Persons Interested..... $ 1800. (#600. each for 3 letters 1/2/65)

Mr. Earl B. Chapman, (Business Manager) (Church address)

Minister..... The Very Rev. Kenneth W. Kadey..... Denomination.....

Architect.....

Vents.....

Position in Church..... Side Vestibule - 3 windows - Epistle side. Side by side, separated only by a narrow metal band.

Height from floor..... Protection Glass..... Groove Rabbet..... Metal Stone Wood.....

Exposure..... Footage.....

Inscription..... The first window closest to the altar will be - In Loving Memory of Ione E. Deaner
The second window - In Loving Memory of Carl E. Fox
The third window - In Loving Memory of Florence S. Stromberg

Design wanted..... Inscriptions should not be conspicuous. "In Loving Memory" in smaller letters than the three names. Staging

Templates..... Blueprints.....

General Information.....

As suggested, they are devoted to the Prophets, -
Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel; Amos, Daniel and Hosea.

All hold prophetic scrolls. Isaiah bears the traditional tongs and coal of fire with which the Angel cleansed his lips. In the field is an Angel with trumpet of praise.

Jeremiah has the chains of bondage, and near him is the mourning Angel.

Ezekiel, the priestly Prophet, bears the devotional flame with the praying Angel near by.

Amos is represented as the shepherd; and the traditional lions are designed at Daniel's feet. Near Hosea is the broken idol.

Next group will be: Amos, Daniel, and Hosea, Gospel side.