

No 4650

Place Brookline, Massachusetts,

Building Temple Emeth, West Roxbury Parkway.

Date of Completion November 29, 1962.

Contract with Federal Glass and Mirror Co., 355 Worcester Road, Framingham, Mas

Persons Interested Max Newhouse, in charge.

Price: $210?

Profit 2 7/10 = 574.5

Minister Carney Goldberg, of Denomination Jewish.

Architect Isidor Richmond, and Carney Goldberg.

Vents

Position in Church Glass for Hall Addition to Temple Emeth, Entrance Doors, and 7 panels

Height from floor

Protection Glass

Groove Rabbet

Metal Stone Wood

Exposure

Footage

Inscription

Design wanted

Staging

Templates

Blueprints

General Information ^{1/2} 120 3"x3" 7 feet. (in four doors)

7 lights 8" x 2'8 7/8" 14 feet.

Glass used double - See diagrams in folder. Rainbow arrangement in 7 panels and colors suggesting jewels in High Priest's Breast Plate in the openings of the doors.

We furnished all glass and lead, and the Federal Glass and Mirror do the setting, and pay the bill. We delivered the glass to the church, and notified the glass company that it was there. Furnished marked diagrams to correspond with chalk markings on the glass.