General Information

This window is designed to symbolize the welcome to Worship.

The young Samuel, later to become prophet, priest and judge of Israel, who anointed Saul and David, is represented as he hears the call of God, suggested by descending rays of Divine light.

Below is the significant text from the fourth verse of the one hundredth Psalm, - "Enter into His gates with thanksgiving".

The colorful medallion is set in a field of foliated grisaille, or decorative vine pattern, light and brilliant in color to admit an abundance of illumination to the area
