General Information "Teaching Christ"

Designed to harmonize with the others, the three panel window is devoted to the Teaching Christ, with implications of the Sermon on the Mount.

Our Lord stands with hand raised in the attitude of teaching. In the blue field above are the Alpha and Omega, traditional symbols of the beginning and the end. At either side are groups of attentive listeners of all ages.

In the fields above and below are eight pointed crosses, symbols of the eight Beatitudes through which Our Lord taught the way of true Christian life.
