General Information..... One pair devoted to the Good Shepherd, and Our Lord in the Garden of Gethsemane; and the other to Christ, the Light of the World, and the Supper at Emmaus, as He broke bread and revealed Himself to His traveling companions.

We have alternated the background colors of the medallions and borders, - ruby and blue, in pairs, for further interest. This plan can be beautifully developed in future windows devoted to the Life of Christ.

Our thought is to remove the present sash and install the new windows directly in the casings. This will make them somewhat larger than the present openings. I find the areas are greater than my first impression, but I believe we can keep their costs to five hundred and fifty dollars each window, installed complete. That is, twenty-two hundred for the four.
