

Price: $285. if installed when craftsmen are up that way.
$85. for Protection for the Rose Window.

Nº 5392 J

Place..... Augusta, Maine

Building..... St. Mark's Home for Women Date of Completion.....

Persons Interested.....

Minister..... Denomination.....

Architect.....

Vents.....

Position in Church..... Two Plain Windows on a side wall in the Chapel.

Height from floor.....	Protection Glass.....	Groove Rabbet.....	Metal Stone Wood.....
------------------------	-----------------------	--------------------	-----------------------

Exposure..... Footage.....

Inscription.....

Design wanted..... Staging.....

Templates..... Blueprints.....

General Information.....

The Committee would like-

Windows with colorful decorative borders and diamond patterned fields, without any symbols, or inscriptions.

Mr. Skinner wrote,-

The light source for these windows is so different from the others that we should use lighter glass to be effective in the borrowed, indirect illumination. Dark blues would go almost black in the low light. The warmer colors hold their own, better; although the deep reds would lose considerably.